

Course on Sefardi and Anousim Studies (Offered IN HEBREW)

The Institute for Sefardi and Anousim Studies will conduct a nine-month course on Sefardi and Anousim studies, with classes meeting once per month.

The classes will be conducted in Hebrew.

The first four lectures will give a general historical background, and the remaining lectures will focus on the contemporaneous Anousim phenomenon from various perspectives.

The cost of the course is ₪ 450.

Lectures will be conducted on Tuesday evenings from 5:00 to 7:00 pm, beginning October 2015.

For more information, please contact salomonb@netanya.ac.il.

Course Details:

Date	SUBJECT	LECTURER
27 OCT 15	Introduction: Phases of Sephardic Judaism	Prof. Avi Gross
24 NOV 15	1391-1414 Attacks and Mass Baptisms	Prof. Avi Gross
29 DEC 15	New Christians in Christian Society Purity of Blood Laws (limpieza de sangre)	Prof. Avi Gross
26 JAN 15	Inquisition, Expulsion and Mass Baptisms in Portugal	Prof. Avi Gross
23 FEB 16	The Anousim Diaspora in the Spanish and Portuguese Colonies	Dr. Aliza Moreno
29 MAR 16	The Establishment of the Inquisition and Emigration from Portugal	Mr. Giora Barak
19 APR 16	Refugees from the Iberian Exile in Occidental Europe	Dr. Aliza Moreno
31 MAY 16	Back to Judaism: Political and Rabbinical Institutions	Dr. Rabbi Moshe Pinshuk
28 JUN 16	From the Discovery of the Belmonte Jewish Community to the Phoenix-like Resurrection Phenomenon during the 20th Century	Dr. Shulamit Halevy